

SPIEGEL & McDIARMID OFFERS
PRIVATE PRACTICE WITH A
PUBLIC INTEREST FOCUS

Spiegel & McDiarmid is a mid-sized law firm currently comprising over thirty lawyers, having grown from two lawyers in 1967. While our practice areas (energy, telecommunications, transportation, environmental) might qualify us for a general litigation classification, we dislike labels. We prefer to think of ourselves as a firm with a very significant concern for the public interest, and this concern is reflected in our client representations and policies. Our practice involves extensive amounts of litigation or potential litigation for municipal clients. A lawyer can expect to participate in hearings, trials and judicial appeals before federal and state regulatory commissions, agencies and courts, and arbitration panels. We embrace diversity in thought and background, and we actively seek lawyers dedicated to integrity, superior performance and serving the public interest.

SPIEGEL & McDIARMID:

“This industry’s most intellectually formidable law firm.”
