

Lauren L. Springett

Associate

Lauren Springett works with public-sector clients in the electric, telecommunications, and hydropower industries. She joined Spiegel & McDiarmid LLP in fall 2019, following her graduation from Columbia Law School, where she was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. Since joining Spiegel, Lauren has represented a diverse array of local government and state utility clients before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) and federal courts. She is also involved with counseling clients on legislative matters.

During law school, Lauren was a member of the Columbia Journal of Law and Social Problems and served on the journal's editorial board as an Articles Editor.

lauren.springett@spiegelmc.com

202.879.2045

EDUCATION

Columbia University School of Law, JD, 2019

New York, NY

Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar

University of Chicago, BA, with honors, 2014

Chicago, IL

History, Philosophy and Social Studies of Science and Medicine

ADMISSIONS

New York

District of Columbia

Massachusetts

Representative Matters

- Part of the team representing a coalition of local governments and access-channel interests in the appeals of the FCC's Franchise Fee Order. City of Eugene, Or. v. FCC, 998 F.3d 701 (6th Cir. 2021).
- Participated in relicensing settlement negotiations on behalf of a community group adversely impacted by a hydroelectric project.

Resources

- Retooling Ratemaking: Addressing Perverse Incentives in Wholesale Transmission Rates, by Lauren L. Springett, Anree G. Little (November 2021).

SPIEGEL &
McDIARMID
LLP

United States Courts of Appeals for the District of Columbia, Third and Ninth Circuits