Spiegel Attorney Speaks on Panel at EBA Annual Meeting

May 7, 2018 | Cynthia S. Bogorad

Cindy Bogorad participated in a panel discussion at the Energy Bar Association's 2018 Annual Meeting and Conference, Monday, May 7. The panelists explored the recent impacts of mergers and acquisitions on energy markets and the energy industry as a whole. Special attention was paid to FERC's 2016 Notice of Inquiry on assessing (among other things) market power in transactions under Federal Power Act § 203. Joining her on the panel were Mark Niefer from the Department of Justice's Antitrust Division, FERC's Amery Pore, and Mike Naeve, of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom. For more information about the conference, please visit EBA's conference page (http://www.eba-net.org/education-events/2018annualmeetingconference/).

Related Practices and Services

- Electric

Spiegel Attorney Speaks on Panel at EBA Annual Meeting

May 7, 2018 | Cynthia S. Bogorad

Cindy Bogorad participated in a panel discussion at the Energy Bar Association's 2018 Annual Meeting and Conference, Monday, May 7. The panelists explored the recent impacts of mergers and acquisitions on energy markets and the energy industry as a whole. Special attention was paid to FERC's 2016 Notice of Inquiry on assessing (among other things) market power in transactions under Federal Power Act § 203. Joining her on the panel were Mark Niefer from the Department of Justice's Antitrust Division, FERC's Amery Pore, and Mike Naeve, of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom. For more information about the conference, please visit EBA's conference page (http://www.eba-net.org/education-events/2018annualmeetingconference/).

SPIEGEL & MCDIARMID LLP

Related Practices and Services

- Electric