Spiegel & McDiarmid LLP Assists Broad Coalition in Seeking Changes in Incentives for Utility Transmission Construction

March 5, 2012 | Jeffrey A. Schwarz, Scott H. Strauss

Working closely with our clients in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire, Spiegel & McDiarmid LLP attorneys Scott Strauss, Jeff Schwarz, and Kate Boudouris assisted in drafting a letter to FERC expressing common concerns with the Commission's transmission incentives policy. The letter has been signed by a broad coalition of attorneys general, state regulators, consumer advocates, consumer-owned utilities, and major national and regional environmental groups. A copy of the letter can be accessed below.
